ABOUT THE DIRECTORS

LINDSAY DORIS

Lindsay began her dance training at the age of 7 in Scottsdale, AZ. Lindsay's dance training was as unique as it included the opportunity to be a competitive dancer as well as trained in the classical forms of ballet and modern dance. This cross-section of dance education inspired her to continue on in dance as a career. At the age of 16, she was accepted into the prestigious University of North Carolina School of the Arts (UNCSA) where she received her high school diploma and Bachelor of Fine Arts in Contemporary Dance. At UNCSA she experienced working with the choreography of such greats as Jose Limon, Lar Lubovitch and Alwin Nikolais. Following her graduation from UNCSA, Lindsay continued her dance education at The Limon School, The Paul Taylor School, The Merce Cunningham School and the Peridance Capezio Center. It was through a class at Peridance that Lindsay gained her entry into the professional dance world and became a member of the Cleo Mack Dance Project. It was during her final year with the company that she decided teaching dance was her true passion and she leapt into the the world of teaching full force.

DANA MILLETTE

At the age of 2 1/2, Dana was diagnosed with a brain tumor that nearly caused her to lose her life. Although most of the tumor was successfully removed, her neurologists were concerned that what remained might continue to grow and affect her coordination. To offset that possibility her parents enrolled her in dance classes and thankfully she made a full recovery. Since beginning her dance training at the age of 3, she has had the opportunity to study various forms of dance including Broadway-style tap and the ballet syllabus of the Royal Academy of Dance as well as perform as a competitive dancer. At age 17, Dana was nominated for a prestigious Papermill Playhouse Rising Star Award for her choreography in her highschool's production of "The Music Man." After graduating high school Dana went on to receive her Bachelor of Fine Arts in Dance from Rutgers University Mason Gross School of the Arts (MGSA). While at MGSA she was a member of University Danceworks which gave her the opportunity to work with many well-known choreographers. She then went on to study massage therapy in order to increase her knowledge of anatomy and injury prevention. It was at a very young age that Dana knew teaching dance was her life's dream and is thrilled to bring the love and appreciation of dance into the hearts of young children each and every day.

Time To Go

(Jilian Linklater)

Taste the stars
And run down tomorrow
Time isn't waiting
If we do we'll never know
It's time to go
(Hey)
And we could dance
In the face of the monsters
Take our chances anywhere that we wander
It's time to go
(Hey)
Is this noise or is it music?
You've got a voice so use it
Here we go

Ooh, ooh, oh-oh-oh-oh
Don't look down
We're lifting off the ground
Here we go
Ooh, ooh, oh-oh-oh-oh
We're moving through the sky
From the highest highs
Here we go
Oh, oh, oh, oh-oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh-oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh-oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh-oh

We're sun blinded in the northern lights
So let's shoot down them so we burn so bright
We burn so bright
(Hey)

Is this noise or is it music?
(Oh, oh, oh, oh-oh)
(Oh, oh, oh, oh-oh)

You've got a voice so use it
Here we go

Ooh, ooh, oh-oh-oh-oh
Don't look down

We're lifting off the ground
Here we go

Ooh, ooh, oh-oh-oh-oh

We're moving through the sky from the highest highs
Here we go

Oh, oh, oh, oh-oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh-oh

15 years ago, you stepped onto the stage with pink balloons tied to your little wrists for your very first dance recital. It has been an absolute blessing to watch you dance all these years and we enjoyed every minute of it!

Through all the dance classes, regional & national competitions, and trips to Disney, you have created memories that you will cherish forever. As you move on to the next chapter of your life, may you hold onto those lessons learned and may those experiences continue to inspire and guide you.

And remember, dancing "My Way" is a testament to the courage you've shown along the way. We love you more than you can ever imagine!

All our love,
always & forever,
