A PURE MOVEMENT DANCE CENTER PRODUCTION

SUNDAY MAY 18TH, 2025
4:00 PM

WELCOME TO
PURE MOVEMENT
DANCE CENTER'S
13TH ANNUAL SHOWCASE
"WHERE IT ALL BEGINS"

Thank you all for attending our Annual Showcase,

Where It All Begins

We are incredibly proud to celebrate the dedication and hard work of our dancers. From our youngest performers to our seasoned seniors, each movement showcases their true passion for dance. This weekend offers a meaningful chance to share that joy with the families who uplift and motivate us. Prepare to be inspired by a performance full of heart, talent, and unforgettable moments!

ABOUT THE DIRECTORS

LINDSAY DORIS

Lindsay began her dance training at the age of 7 in Scottsdale, AZ. Lindsay's dance training was as unique as it included the opportunity to be a competitive dancer as well as trained in the classical forms of ballet and modern dance. This cross-section of dance education inspired her to continue on in dance as a career. At the age of 16, she was accepted into the prestigious University of North Carolina School of the Arts (UNCSA) where she received her high school diploma and Bachelor of Fine Arts in Contemporary Dance. At UNCSA she experienced working with the choreography of such greats as Jose Limon, Lar Lubovitch and Alwin Nikolais. Following her graduation from UNCSA, Lindsay continued her dance education at The Limon School, The Paul Taylor School, The Merce Cunningham School and the Peridance Capezio Center. It was through a class at Peridance that Lindsay gained her entry into the professional dance world and became a member of the Cleo Mack Dance Project. It was during her final year with the company that she decided teaching dance was her true passion and she leapt into the world of teaching full force.

DANA MILLETTE

At the age of 2 1/2, Dana was diagnosed with a brain tumor that nearly caused her to lose her life. Although most of the tumor was successfully removed, her neurologists were concerned that what remained might continue to grow and affect her coordination. To offset that possibility her parents enrolled her in dance classes and thankfully she made a full recovery. Since beginning her dance training at the age of 3, she has had the opportunity to study various forms of dance including Broadway-style tap and the ballet syllabus of the Royal Academy of Dance as well as perform as a competitive dancer. At age 17, Dana was nominated for a prestigious Papermill Playhouse Rising Star Award for her choreography in her high school's production of "The Music Man." After graduating high school Dana went on to receive her Bachelor of Fine Arts in Dance from Rutgers University Mason Gross School of the Arts (MGSA). While at MGSA she was a member of University Danceworks which gave her the opportunity to work with many well-known choreographers. She then went on to study massage therapy in order to increase her knowledge of anatomy and injury prevention. It was at a very young age that Dana knew teaching dance was her life's dream and is thrilled to bring the love and appreciation of dance into the hearts of young children each and every day.

Thank You

It truly takes a community to bring a full year of dance to life and make four incredible performances a reality!

To our dancers – Your passion and dedication light up every studio and stage. Your hard work, enthusiasm, and commitment to growth make us proud beyond words. You are the heart of everything we do.

To the PMDC parents and caregivers –

Thank you for your endless support, encouragement, and the countless sacrifices you make behind the scenes. Your commitment ensures your dancers show up ready to thrive, and we are deeply grateful.

To our remarkable PMDC faculty and staff –

Your talent, professionalism, and unwavering devotion to our dancers shape their journey in the most meaningful ways. Our success would not be possible without your guidance and heart.

And to our own families – Your constant support, patience, and love fuel the work we do every day. Thank you, Bill, Evan, Ellie, Peter, Emma, and Jamie, for the late nights, the long weekends, and for being the quiet strength behind it all.

Lindsay & Dana

PMDC Faculty

Rachel Baird

Originally from Canada, Rachel began dancing at a young age training extensively in ballet and contemporary. She was awarded her RAD Advanced 2 Certificate with Distinction and spent summers training with Canada's National Ballet School. At the age of 16, she was accepted to the Joffrey Ballet School Trainee Division in New York City where she was then offered a position with the Joffrey Concert Group. Rachel then moved to San Francisco after being accepted to the prestigious 2-year Alonzo King LINES Ballet Training Program under the direction of Karah Abiog.

Rachel currently works with several New York City based choreographers, in addition to premiering her own choreographic works. She has been featured in Dance Magazine, Dance Teacher Magazine and DanceSpirit Magazine for her performing and choreographic endeavors. Rachel is a lead trainer and teacher with Dancin Power- a non profit organization that provides therapeutic dance to children in hospitals. In addition, she teaches Adaptive Dance at the International Academy of Hope in NYC and is a lead barre instructor with New York's Physique 57. Rachel is thrilled to be part of the Pure Movement Dance Center faculty/family!

Danielle Cutone

Born in Buffalo, NY, Danielle began taking dance classes at a very early age after begging to tag along with her older sister. She then attended the Buffalo Academy of Visual and Performing Arts and continued on to receive her B.F.A. in Dance from the University of the Arts, Philadelphia. While attending UARTS, Danielle cheered professionally with the Philadelphia Eagles which awarded her the opportunity to perform in the Chinese New Year Parade in Hong Kong. Upon graduation she moved to Los Angeles to further her career. In doing so she taught and performed at schools, art festivals, and dance venues throughout Southern California with the L.A. Choreographers and Dancers. Other performances Danielle was proud to be part of in Los Angeles include the L.A. Choreographers Carnival, Disney's El Capitan Theatre, and the Dome with the BollyDolls, a Bollywood pop/girl group. Prior to moving to NJ with her family, Danielle had spent the last decade as a studio owner back in her hometown of Buffalo, spreading her love of dance through classes ranging in all styles for all ages. She has loved teaching at PMDC this past year and is thrilled to continue sharing her passion for dance!

Kenzie Ginter

Kenzie Ginter is originally from Kalamazoo, MI, where she grew up training in a variety of concert and commercial dance styles. She received a BFA in dance from NYU Tisch School of the Arts, where she had the privilege of performing works by Yin Yue and Dwight Rhoden, as well as choreographing and collaborating in student pieces. More recently, Kenzie has enjoyed completing GibneyPRO under the mentorship of Alexandra Wells. Kenzie is currently dancing with I KADA Contemporary Dance Company, Gotham Dance Theater, and Mason Lee Dance Theater, and has had the privilege of performing across multiple venues in NYC, including New York Live Arts, Ailey Citigroup Theater, and Peridance's KnJ Theater. Along with performing, Kenzie is passionate about teaching and choreographing and enjoys sharing her love of dance with the next generation!

Alyssa Greenspan

Alyssa Greenspan is from Bergenfield, New Jersey, where she started dancing at age 5 at Dance Dimensions. She was a part of their award winning Competition Team for 11 years, studying styles such as tap, hip hop, contemporary, jazz, and ballet. She had the privilege to train under choreographers such as Lisa Minery, Tommy Scrivens, and Marinda Davis. After graduating high school in 2021, she went back to Dance Dimensions to teach and assist with tap lessons and rehearsals. Alyssa just graduated from Montclair State University with a B.A. in Family Science and Human Development. She will return to the University for the next year to additionally gain her Masters of Teaching (K-6) with a Special Education Certification. She was a part of the Montclair State Dance Company for 4 years, where she has been able to choreograph several pieces, and earned multiple awards at intercollegiate dance competitions. Alyssa just finished up her term as President of the company, but has also held Dance Captain and Secretary roles. Alyssa is excited and honored to be back for a second year on the PMDC faculty, and cannot wait to continue on with her love for teaching dance!

Corinne Hart

Corinne Hart is an accomplished dancer, educator, and arts administrator. She has performed with reputable companies such as Cherylyn Lavagnino Dance, WADEensemble, and RIOULT Repertoire Group at venues including New York City Center Studios and The Ailey Citigroup Theater. Corinne holds a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Dance and a minor in Nutritional Studies from New York University's Tisch School of the Arts. Her performance repertoire includes classical and contemporary works by Pascal Rioult, Ori Flomin, Roy Assaf, Cherylyn Lavagnino, Stephanie Batten Bland, and Sadé Alleyne. As an educator, Corinne has taught at New York University, Southern Methodist University, University of Utah, Gibney Dance, Peridance Center, RIOULT Dance Center, among others. She is certified in Anti-Racism and Anti-Abuse training from the Dance Education Equity Association, emphasizing her dedication to creating safe dance spaces for all. In her role as an arts administrator and freelancer through Corinne Hart LLC, she provides advice and strategic planning to enhance her clients' operations through grant writing, digital marketing, and more.

Emily LeBoeuf

Originally from Basking Ridge, NJ, Emily LeBoeuf began training with Lindsay & Dana at the age of 8, becoming a Pure Movement Dance Center Alumni in 2013. Emily then went on to receive her Bachelor of Arts in Dance and Media & Communication from Muhlenberg College in Allentown, PA. Beginning her dance training at age 3, Emily comes from a strong competitive background, training in ballet, modern, contemporary, and jazz. She has also trained with numerous artists including Karen Dearborn, Jeffrey Peterson, Randall Anthony Smith, & Tracey Stanfield. Emily lost her father in 2021 and has since taken over her family business, Sports Minded Unlimited in Warren, NJ. Her dance and sports family mean the most to her! After 8 seasons with PMDC, Emily's love of teaching continues to grow each day and she cannot wait to see what's in store for her and her students in the years to come!

Grace McCombs

Grace McCombs is a dancer, dance educator, and yoga instructor from Chatham, NJ. They received their masters in Dance Education at Rutgers Graduate School of Education in May 2025. During that program, Grace completed a semester full-time student teaching at North Plainfield High School under the direction of Rebecca Visintainer. Grace received their 200-HR yoga teacher training through Lila Flow in the summer of 2024 and is currently teaching at Rutgers Recreation. They graduated from Mason Gross School of the Arts at Rutgers University with a BFA in Dance in May 2024. During their time in the dance program, Grace performed works by Gerald Casel, John Evans, Pam Tanowitz, and Ani Javian, in addition to various student works. Other notable performance credits include the American College Dance Association Northeast Conference, Arts On Site, OpenRhythmic, and promotional footage for Netflix's "Umbrella Academy." They have had the opportunity to complete summer studies with Accademia Dell'arte, David Dordman, Mary Grace McNally, and Carolyn Dorfman. They have previously taught dance at the Madison Area YMCA and have recently joined the team at Pure Movement Dance Center. Having graduated from PMDC in 2020, Grace is thrilled to join the faculty here to share their love for dance and passion for teaching!

Hayley Meikle

Hayley Meikle is originally from Bridgewater, NJ, she began dancing at age 3 where she met Lindsay and Dana. She grew to join the Washington Rock Youth Ballet Company when she was 6 then joined the tap competition team with Dana when she was 9. Hayley joined the Pure Movement family in 2017 and has enjoyed every second of it! She has loved watching her students achieve their goals. Hayley also runs our social media so you might see her around studio events and competitions taking pictures! She is so grateful for the opportunity to help her students grow and can't wait to see what's in store for the years to come!

Tessa Moody

Tessa Moody, from Columbia, NJ began her dance and gymnastics journey at the age of 3. She has trained both competitively and recreationally in hip hop, contemporary, tap, jazz, and ballet. Tessa had the opportunity to train under famous artists such as Brian and Scott Nicholson, Jose “Boy Boi” Tena, Christopher Broughton, Nick Dinicolangelo, and Katrina Endozo. She also has experience training with Liberate Artists and performing at World of Dance. Tessa is a graduate of Montclair State University with a degree in Business and Hospitality. She was involved in Montclair State Dance Company as an executive board member holding the positions of Event Coordinator and Dance Captain. Tessa continues her dance training as a member and co-choreographer of Transcendence Dance Collective. She spends her time creating and performing in numerous dance projects, and she is also continuing her passion with event management. Tessa loves to teach and inspire others, and cherishes every connection she makes. She is so grateful to be able to express herself and grow with dance after all these years!

Charlotte Perret

Charlotte Perret is originally from Chatham, New Jersey where she grew up training in a multitude of dance styles and finding both love and passion for the art form. Perret is also a PMDC alumni who then went on to complete her BFA in dance at Mason Gross School of the Arts at Rutgers University in 2024. Throughout the years, she has had the opportunity to train with many choreographers and artists such as; Pam Tanowitz, Gerald Casel, Evelyn Wang, and many others. Charlotte is grateful to continue her journey with the Pure Movement family and is so excited to work with new students and choreographers for the years to come!

Alex Ware

Alex was born and raised in the Chicago area, where she received her interdisciplinary dance training from a competitive dance studio. In May of 2022, she graduated Summa Cum Laude from NYU with a BFA in Dance, as well as minors in the Business of Entertainment, Media, and Technology, and Social and Cultural Analysis.

Alex currently teaches Contemporary, Jazz, Acro, and Modern. Her teaching style emphasizes the development of technical skills while fostering creativity and artistry in her students. Additionally, Alex is a member of the faculty at the Dupree Dance Convention, where she adjudicates and teaches classes across the country. She also serves as the Collective Program Coordinator for Dupree, mentoring young dancers and helping them hone their craft.

In her performance career, Alex most recently had the honor of performing at the Broadway Cares Red Bucket Follies at the New Amsterdam Theatre. In addition to her performance and teaching career, Alex is also certified in Group Fitness Education and Pilates Mat and integrates the best elements of fitness training into her dance classes to promote longevity and strength in her students.

PMDC would like to congratulate staff member and former PMDC dancer Amber Glogolich on her graduation from high school. After the conclusion of her dance career, Amber has remained a valued member of our team as our front desk staff. We are so grateful our lives could stay intertwined as she is a remarkable young woman. Amber we are so proud of you and we wish you all the success and happiness that is sure to come your way in your future endeavors

(Summer Kennedy)

This could be the moment
We've been waiting for it
The chance to feel alive
Nothing's gonna stop us
Nothing's gonna top this
Nothing like we've ever seen
And I raise my hands to the sky
What a feeling
'Cause I feel like dancing high
Gotta feel it
Time to feel it
This is where it all begins

(Woah-oh-oh, woah-oh, woah-oh)

(Woah-oh-oh)

This is where it all begins

(Woah-oh-oh, woah-oh, woah-oh)

(Woah-oh-oh)

This is where it all begins

'Cause this could be the best day
of our lives, yeah

(Woah-oh-oh, woah-oh, woah-oh)

(Woah-oh-oh)

This is where it all begins

Burnin' like a light show

Free yourself and let go

Time to see it all

Don't think about tomorrow

Today we are heroes

Hear adventure call

There are whole new worlds to see,

I keep running

And my feet keep liftin' me, like I'm flying

Time to see it

This is where it all begins

(Woah-oh-oh, woah-oh, woah-oh)

(Woah-oh-oh)

This is where it all begins

(Woah-oh-oh, woah-oh, woah-oh)

(Woah-oh-oh)

Ten years of competitions.
The years go by so fast.
From Cool Kitty to Heartbeats,
we have loved every performance.
Can't wait to see what's left in your dance journey.

Love,
Mom, Dad & Dean

Congratulations
on another great year of dance.
We love you and are so proud of your hard work.
Mom, Dad, Jacob & Tristan

For ten incredible years,
you've danced with a spirit that's truly
Born to be Wild – bold, fearless, and full of fire. From your first steps to now, you've let the music guide you, moving with a Glow that lights up every stage.

Whether you are ready to Shake the Room or simply Just Wanna Go and lose yourself in the rhythm, your passion shines through.
Dance has made you stronger in every way
- in heart, in grace, in confidence.

You've always been Footloose, dancing through life with joy and determination.

We could not be more proud of the beautiful dancer and person you've become.

You mean the world to us,
and we love you more than words
can express.

Love, Hugs & Kisses,
Mom, Dad and Jackson

Kirsten

You rocked it this season! Your fun spirit, fierce moves, and glowing presence blow us
