Thank you all for attending our Annual Showcase,

Wild at Heart

We are so thrilled to have you join us for a celebration of movement, passion, and the untamed spirit of our incredible performers. From our littlest three-year-olds taking their very first steps on stage to our graduating seniors who have spent over a decade honing their craft, today is a tribute to their hard work and artistic growth. We invite you to sit back, relax, and enjoy the energy and heart that these dancers, ages 3 to 18, have poured into every routine. Thank you for being part of our dance family and joining us on this special day!

ABOUT THE DIRECTORS

LINDSAY DORIS

Lindsay began her dance training at the age of 7 in Scottsdale, AZ. Lindsay's dance training was as unique as it included the opportunity to be a competitive dancer as well as trained in the classical forms of ballet and modern dance. This cross-section of dance education inspired her to continue on in dance as a career. At the age of 16, she was accepted into the prestigious University of North Carolina School of the Arts (UNCSA) where she received her high school diploma and Bachelor of Fine Arts in Contemporary Dance. At UNCSA she experienced working with the choreography of such greats as Jose Limon, Lar Lubovitch and Alwin Nikolais. Following her graduation from UNCSA, Lindsay continued her dance education at The Limon School, The Paul Taylor School, The Merce Cunningham School and the Peridance Capezio Center. It was through a class at Peridance that Lindsay gained her entry into the professional dance world and became a member of the Cleo Mack Dance Project. It was during her final year with the company that she decided teaching dance was her true passion and she leapt into the world of teaching full force.

DANA MILLETTE

At the age of 2 1/2, Dana was diagnosed with a brain tumor that nearly caused her to lose her life. Although most of the tumor was successfully removed, her neurologists were concerned that what remained might continue to grow and affect her coordination. To offset that possibility her parents enrolled her in dance classes and thankfully she made a full recovery. Since beginning her dance training at the age of 3, she has had the opportunity to study various forms of dance including Broadway-style tap and the ballet syllabus of the Royal Academy of Dance as well as perform as a competitive dancer. At age 17, Dana was nominated for a prestigious Papermill Playhouse Rising Star Award for her choreography in her high school's production of "The Music Man." After graduating high school Dana went on to receive her Bachelor of Fine Arts in Dance from Rutgers University Mason Gross School of the Arts (MGSA). While at MGSA she was a member of University Danceworks which gave her the opportunity to work with many well-known choreographers. She then went on to study massage therapy in order to increase her knowledge of anatomy and injury prevention. It was at a very young age that Dana knew teaching dance was her life's dream and is thrilled to bring the love and appreciation of dance into the hearts of young children each and every day.

Thank You

Bringing a full year of dance to life—and successfully staging five incredible performances—truly takes a village!

To our dancers: Your passion is the heartbeat of this studio. Your dedication, energy, and constant pursuit of growth make us immensely proud, and watching you shine on stage is the ultimate reward.

To our PMDC parents and caregivers:

Thank you for the endless carpools, the backstage encouragement, and the unwavering support that allows your dancers to thrive. We couldn't do this without your partnership.

To our remarkable faculty and staff: Your talent and devotion shape these young artists every day, and your commitment to excellence is what makes this program possible.

Finally, a deep and heartfelt thank you to the families of Dana and Lindsay. To Bill, Evan, Ellie, Peter, Emma, and Jamie: thank you for your patience through the late nights and long weekends. Your love is the quiet strength that fuels our work and keeps us going.

We are so grateful to have this community by our side.

Wild at Heart

(Anthem Academy)

I never use to take it slow (take it slow)
 Now I
 I feel the air and take the long way home
 This place is all I've ever known
 Not alone and scared of the open road
 'Cause tonight is our night
 To a wild and free
 We could take on the world
 We could be anything
 Are you in, are you out
 Are you coming with me
 Let's take on our fears from the star
 'Cause we're wild at heart
 We're wild at heart
 We're running wild and free
 Be who we want to be
 We're wild at heart
 We're wild, we're wild
 Was always looking for a sign
 Now I know I was just wasting time
 Pretended everything was fine
 I'll move along and leave it all behind
 'Cause tonight is our night
 To a wild and free
 We could take on the world
 We could be anything
 Are you in, are you out
 Are you coming with me?
 Let's take on our fears from the star
 'Cause we're wild at heart
 We're wild at heart
 We're running wild and free

Be who we want to be
 We're wild at heart
 We're wild, we're wild
 You can find what you're missing
 Yeah, just start living
 Just make a new beginning
 And never stop wishing
 You can find what you're missing
 Yeah, just start living
 Just make a new beginning
 And never stop wishing
 'Cause tonight is our night
 To a wild and free
 We could take on the world
 We could be anything
 Are you in, are you out
 Are you coming with me?
 Let's take on our fears from the star
